A note about the title US

On September 11, 2001, our country was attacked by terrorists. As the workday began in New York City on that sunny fall day, two hijacked commercial airlines flew as missiles into the twin towers of the World Trade Center killing nearly 3000 people. A third plane crashed into the Pentagon in Washington D.C. killing 200. Over a field in Pennsylvania, the passengers interrupted another hijacked plane en route to what might have been the White House. We were suddenly, tragically, reminded of our freedoms, our privileges and our vulnerability. In tribute, we have taken the opportunity to layer our yearbook's title. In one sense, these are memories of us, ourselves. In another sense, we are

United States citizens, let us always remember...

Alma Mater

*Our favor'd school all hail to thee,
Rappahannock, Rappahannock;
Our truth and love and loyalty,
Rappahannock, Rappahannock.*

*We're here to learn that truth and right,
Will lead us through the darkest night;
We'll look to thee for strength and light,
Rappahannock, Rappahannock.*

*When all our days in thee are through,
Rappahannock, Rappahannock;
We'll always hold fond mem-or-ies,
Of you dear Rappahannock*

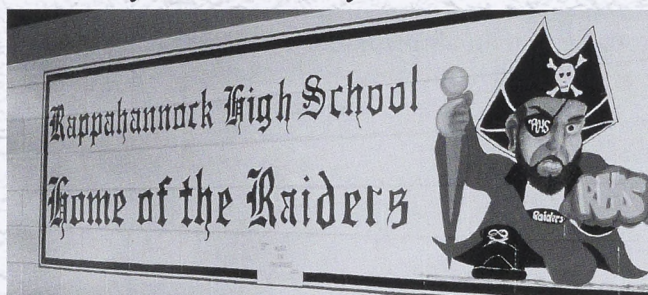

*When all our friends from here are gone,
And we are in the world alone-
Thy name will bring us thoughts of home,
Rappahannock, Rappahannock.*

Tune: "Virginia our Virginia"

Kathryn Brann

Tre, As you are about to begin another journey along life's path, we'd just like to take a moment to reflect and say that we are just so very proud of you. From Kindergarten to Elementary to Jr. High and now High School...you've had good times and, yes even weathered through the rough patches, but you've made it! Live, Love, Laugh, be happy. God Bless & we love you.

Mom and Dad

Heath, We can barely begin to tell you all our wishes for you; there are so many, and we hope they all come true. We want you the self-sufficient, self-reliant, and self-motivated but always know that you will never be alone in the world. You have a strong foundation of family and friends and a love that will always last. Always know that you can come to us with our doubts, hopes and fears. We love you beyond all words and promise to love you beyond all time. We hope you know how very proud of you we are and the man that you are becoming. Many treasures await you in your journey of life but always know in your heart YOU are the greatest treasure! Love always, Mom and Dad

From: "Once upon a time there were three little foxes Who didn't wear stockings, and they didn't wear socks, But they all had handkerchiefs to blow their noses, And they all kept their handkerchiefs in cardboard boxes." - A.A. Milne

To: "The heart breaks with the groan and the grind of a lever, Which lifts a world whose very sun retreats before the brave." - K. Patchen
Let the journey continue.

Love Dad, Betsy, Michael, Sarah, Emma, and Rachael

Kathryn Carter Brann

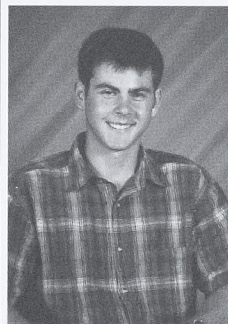

It is hard to believe our "little girl Pearl" is embarking on another new chapter in your life.

We remember with fond memories our times together and look with optimism to your exciting future.

May God hold you firmly in his hands.

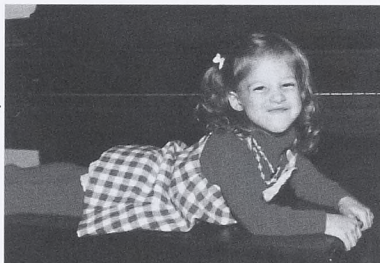

Love, Mom, Dad, and Matthew

You were born with a smile on your face happy to be here. You were and continue to be inquisitive and always wanting answers to your questions. We love you and your "never-quenching" desire for knowledge. God sped you to your thirst for all your answers. Congratulations and thank you for being who you are.

Love, Dad, Mom and Matt

Stir up the fire within you
And step out on your faith
However small it may seem
'Cause it's not a simple matter
Of one dream per customer

Prom 2004

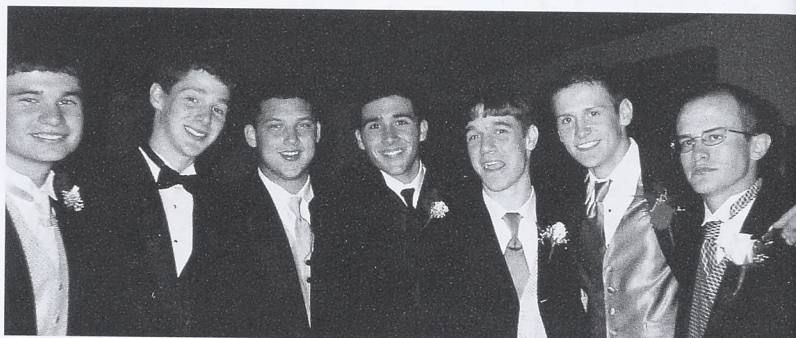

Ever After

To the Senior Class:

On winged feet the four year pass
And now we honor our Senior Class
Beyond these walls, this town, this state
A whole new world now lies in wait.
You've much to learn, we're often told
Wisdom to gain before you're old
But tonight before you turn and go
Your separate ways, as well we know,
Enjoy this place, these hours, this school
In memory they'll return to you.

~ The Junior Class

"Ever After" was the theme of the 2004 Rappahannock High School Prom. The Prom was held at Heritage Park Resort on Friday, April 23, 2004. The Prom was planned and organized by the Junior Class Officers and Sponsors, Mrs. Lesa Knight and Mrs. Hyte Smith.

We've Been Together Since We Were

*We've been together since we were
Just barely more than babes,
Holding onto Mommy's hand,
Missing two front teeth.*

*Some of us now have to wear
A bra and some to shave,
Adults in what our hearts demand,
Still children underneath.*

*Together we learned how to read,
Together learned to play,
To add and multiply our friends,
To give and to receive.*

*Our teachers taught us how to lead,
To put our tears away,
To separate our means and ends,
To work and to achieve.*

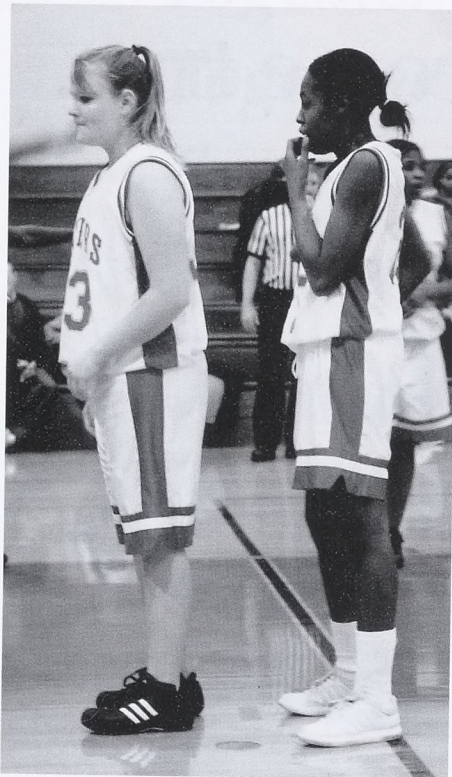

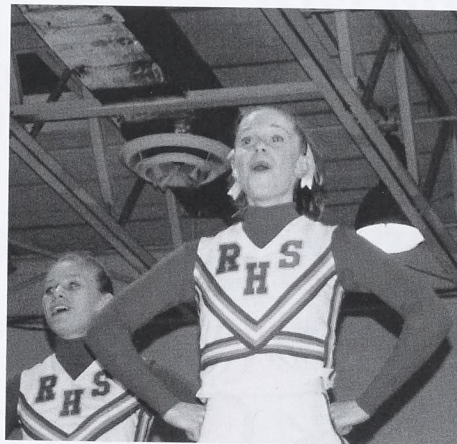

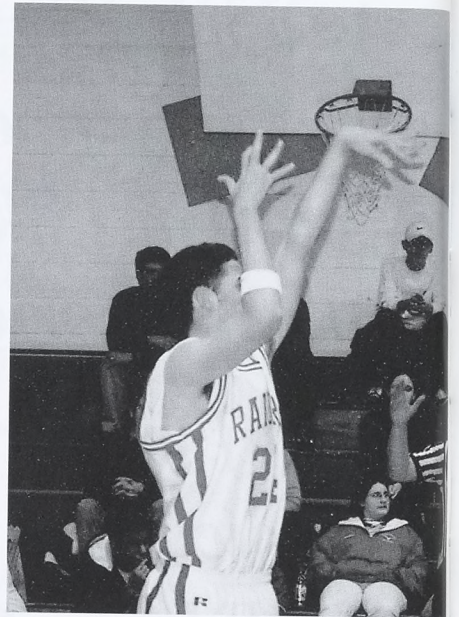

*And now we step across a line;
Our childhood is gone.*

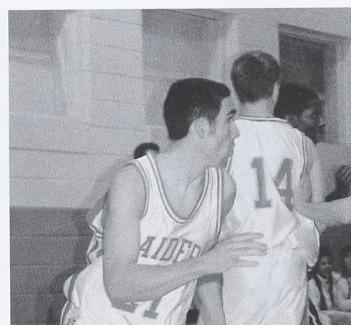

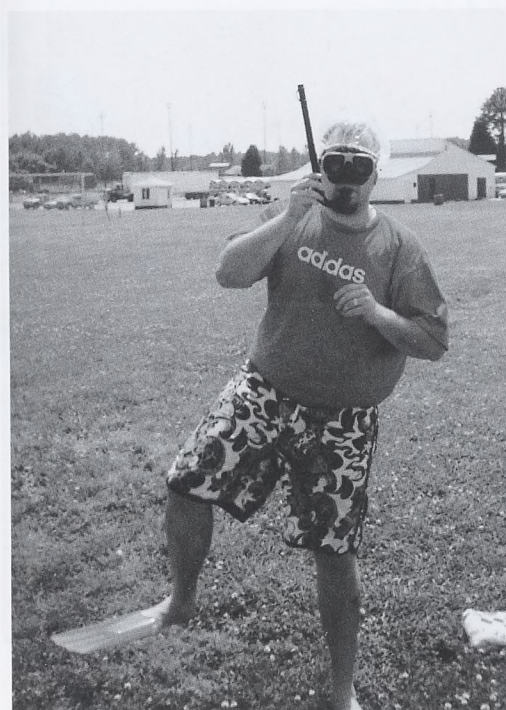

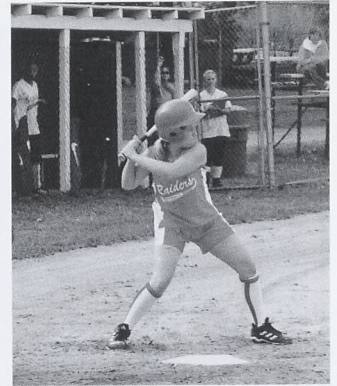

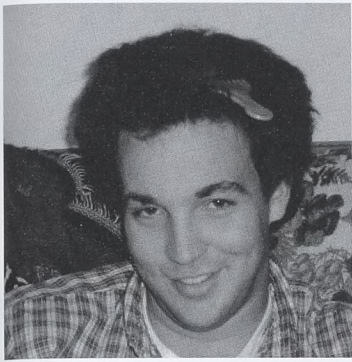

*Soon, just like a morning dream,
The memories will fade.*

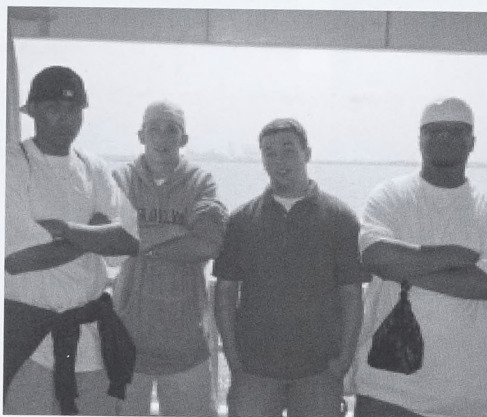

*But if we turn out good and kind,
Rejoicing in the sun,
We'll know to thank these sheltered years
Where our first joys remain.*

Good Luck Class of 2004!
May all your dreams come true.

Follow your dreams for they will always lead you in the right direction

"You'll never 'find' time for anything. If you want time you must make it." ~Charles Braxton

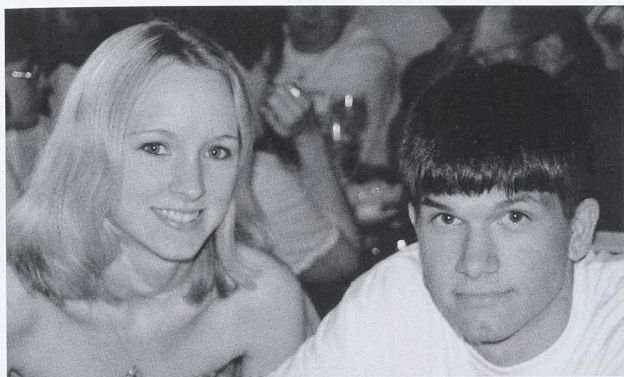

The two hardest things to handle in life are failure and success.

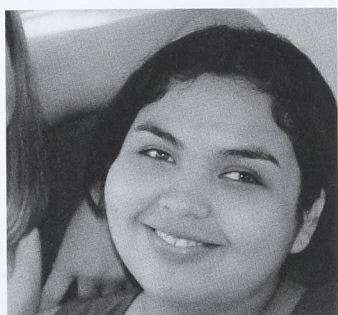

The closer one gets to the top, the more one finds out there is no "top."

"There is no danger of developing eye strain from looking on the bright side of life."

" You will have to make a lot of important decisions, even though most of them may seem small at the time. It will not be nearly so hard to make them if you remember who you are and what your values are" ~Paul C. Brownlow

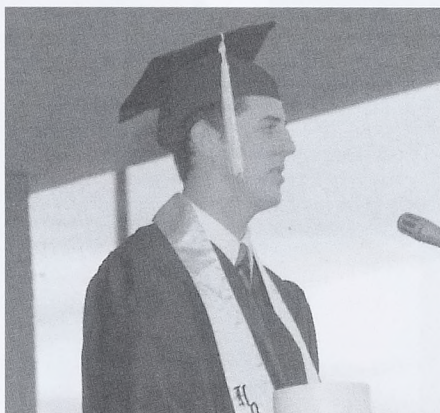

"There are no shortcuts to any place worth going."
